IBIS, LLC, and Win Patrol

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We write concerning your product Win Patrol's behavior towards our product, the WebSearch Toolbar.

Win Patrol detects our product running processes WToolsA.exe and TBPS.exe and tries to disable them (see attached screenshots).

We believe that your product was developed with clear intention of harming IBIS, LLC, and preventing it from distributing its applications to users and interfering with its business relationships.

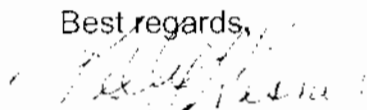

As you well know IBIS, LLC, distributes a sophisticated toolbar on a consensual basis. The company does not allow any distribution for which the user is unaware and that does not require the affirmative consent of the user.

Based on the foregoing your company can be held liable for its intentional interference with relationships of IBIS, LLC, and other violations of its rights.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED TO CEASE AND DESIST FROM INTERFERENCE WITH THE BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS OF IBIS, LLC, AND TO STOP DETECTING AND TRYING TO STOP WEBSEARCH TOOLBAR RUNNING PROCESSES WTOOLS.A.EXE AND TBPS.EXE.

If you continue to interfere with the business relationships of IBIS, LLC, and publish false and defamatory statements, we will pursue all remedies available to IBIS, LLC, by law.

Best regards,

Kelly L. Kesler, Esq.

Associate General Counsel
